HARVEY IN HIS OWN WORDS IF YOU CANNOT DO GREAT THINGS, DO SMALL THINGS IN A GREAT WAY - Napoleon Hill I AM A HERMIT. . . I LIVE ALONE ON A MOUNTAIN in East Tennessee. I have a little cabin on 60 acres of timberland. I do not have electricity. I get my water from a spring. I use a kerosene lamp, or candles for light, a wood stove for heating and cooking. I sometimes go for weeks and never see another person. But I never get lonely. I keep busy. I do a lot of reading and enjoying Gods handiwork. I have learned that loneliness is a sort of poverty, but solitude is richness. The post office is a two hour stroll away. Every once in a while I walk out to the road with a backpack and hitchhike into town for supplies. By keeping things simple, I am under less of a burden and can enjoy life more. I know the difference between pleasure and happiness. . . I can keep myself happy without a lot of what folks call earthly pleasures and the Lord does take care of me. It is good to stop the pursuit of happiness and just be happy. Someone said, There is a period of time between birth and death called life, but many never really live they just mark time. That seems to be a sad reality in many lives and yet society has laid out as pure truth the way man should live. I could not, or would not, fit into that box. If I had, I would have just been marking time. While thinking about my past...
