The monograph is rich in practical details and working methods, covering all the popular outdoor games and sports and will, we are sure, be welcomed by our readers as filling the proverbial long-felt want. The Reaper, Whose name is Death, has been unusually active in photographic fields of late, and we record, with a deep sense of personal loss, the passing of three well-known workers: Henry Lomb, one of the founders of the Bausch Lomb Optical Co., who died at his home in Rochester, N. Y., June 13, in his eightieth year. Captain Lomb's long life was filled with good deeds and public benefactions and he was deservedly beloved by his fellow citizens in all walks of life. Thomas Winfield Pattison, general manager of the American Aristotype Company, who died in New York City, June 2...
