After correspondence with the superintendents, the hour and the exact location in the respective places for the examination will be announced. The rule thus begins to apply to students matriculating in the fall of 1896. The appended circular is of special interest to residents of Western Pennsylvania. As will be noted, on reference, to circular number 2, the examinations are to be held by the City Superintendents of Public Schools, which position is held in Pittsburg by Professor George J. Luckey, who issues the third circular: PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION. All students intending to take the preliminary examination before entering upon the Study of Medicine, will meet in the West Penn Medical College, on August 21 st, at 9.30 A. M. SUBJECTS. Arithmetic--Completed, including the Metric system. English Grammar--Completed. Geography--Mathematical, Physical, Political and Commercial. U. S. History--Completed. Composition--Knowledge of the Prose and Poetry of English and American writers. Geo. J. Luckey. Pittsburg, May 29th, 1896. This examination will, doubtless, prevent the entrance into the ranks of the medical profession of many individuals who do not possess the required cerebral development and mental training that would fit them for the discharge of the duties that fall to the lot of a physician. This has been the weakest point in American medical education. With that weak point strengthened, as will be done by a thorough and impartial examination, the American physician, with his quick perceptions and rapid reasoning powers, must soon...
