Trafford Publishing. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 124 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.2in. x 0.8in. Christians have been long awaiting, and outwardly expressing excitement as they speak about looking forward to their awaited Banquet Feast in heaven. Genuinely convinced by way of their exclusive Christian belief, their invitation to this Great Banquet is an absolute. By all accounts this invitation represents among other things; honor, a privilege, and in its own way, a reward. These exclusive Christians, convinced they will in fact be presented with an invitation to this Great and Grand Banquet Feast taking place in heaven, they have proven to be as equally convinced and assured they will be accepting their invitation and attending this Great Banquet Feast. After all, who in their half right mind would actually prove to decline such a grand invitation Be it here on this earth, or in heaven Our vision of a Great Banquet Feast includes a vast variety of delicious foods in abundance, along with drinks of plenty. No doubt that certainly describes mankind's vision and understanding of an event so grand held here on this earth. With that vision in mind, now try to envision a Banquet so great, if not presumably far exceeding this earthly Banquet, except it is being held in and celebrated in heaven. Invitations are sent out. They are hand delivered to the special guests of this Grand earthly Banquet. The most distinguished and most well known, most well liked, and most wealthy and gracious host has spared no cost, has set no limits. This Grand Banquet will become known throughout all the land and throughout the duration of all history as being unsurpassed in grandeur. Attendance will be limited to, and strictly enforced to those guests who have personally been invited by way of an official hand...
