Dig Up My Gold: But I Wont Say Where Its Buried

By Arthur Birkby

Tate Publishing & Enterprises. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 280 pages. Dimensions: 8.1in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. So you think your family is different Dr. Arthur Birkby has taken the advice of many friends and written an outlandish tale of humor, love, and life in general. Dig Up My Gold, but I Wont Say Where Its Buried is a believably poignant look at this authors life through the 20s, 30s, and 40s, as his day-to-day existence alternated between glorious fulfillment and demoralizing humiliation. Even the most apparently insignificant episodes in life have often been indelibly etched on ones mind and can be beneficial when viewed in proper perspective. Dig Up My Gold, but I Wont Say Where Its Buried will keep you wanting the next treasure and the next story! How is it possible for one man to have assembled so many members of his family who are the most unusual, iconoclastic, idiosyncratic, and diversified characters imaginable The author has done it brilliantly and made each of his readers an extended part of his family as he introduces Grampop, Uncle Bert, Cousin Robert, and my favorite, Uncle Alfred. Birkby tells his story in a smooth-flowing manner, and this is a book...
