Their testimony to a proud and knightly past is now ignored, and no one thinks of Kaiserswerth except as the home of the famous Deaconess Mother-house - as a sort of shrine, to which pilgrimages may be made in loving and grateful memories of the simple, self-forgetting devotion of its founders. In this quiet, remote village beat hearts whose rhythm started waves that have spread over the earth. The direct and indirect extensions of humane endeavour dating from Kaiserswerth may indeed be likened, according to the favourite simile of the German pastors, to the vast tree beginning as a tiny acorn, whose branches cover all the earth.
