HarperCollins Publishers India Pvt. Ltd., Noida, India, 2013. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. In Dasurams Script: New Writing From Odisha, the author provides a curious selection of stories that are of Odisha origin. Jenas collection of stories reflects elements of human struggle and the ethical dilemmas that people in societies are often confronted by. The stories in Dasurams Script: New Writing From Odisha are set in disturbing scenarios, with intriguing beliefs and various forms of poverty being the shared elements. For instance, there is the story of the jobless graduate, who one day after returning home, smothers his wife to death. Then there is the tale of a ten year old child who is sold by her caregivers to an old man in his eighties. Another story is about a newlywed bride discovering that her husband was previously married to a tree before she came into the picture. After being jailed, a tribal poet writes a script reflecting his dialect. There is also the odd tale of a young woman who falls head over heels in love with her boyfriends father. Dasurams Script: New Writing from Odisha was published in 2013 by Harper Perennial and is edited and translated by the author. The book consists of sixteen stories by award winning writers. Page Extent: 262.
