Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Righted at Last: A Novel I was a waif cast up by the Dead Sea of poverty upon the town of Bradshaw, Connecticut. From my earliest memory I was town poor, and lived with Granny Hunt in the Pond District, a portion of the town not remarkable for the respectability or sobriety of its inhabitants. I do not know how the select-men could have put a little child to live with such a woman as Sally Hunt; they certainly would never have subjected one of their own children to the ordeal, but they were acting for the public interest, and I suppose the public conscience absolved them, all the more readily, because she offered to keep me for a shilling per week less than any one else. Moreover, she was known to be neat, economical, and industrious, a regular driver; she would early initiate me into these saving habits, and what more could a town pauper need or expect? Why should I blame them? Are there not many there now who deem these the cardinal...
