Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Department of Defense Authorization for Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2005, Vol. 4: Hearing Before the Committee on Armed Services United States Senate, One Hundred Eighth Congress, Second Session on S. 2400; To Authorized Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2005 for Military Activities of the Department of Defense, for Military Construction I value your insight and your commitment to this country. I want to recognize, also, the men and women of our active. Reserve, and National Guard components, supported by civilian employees and contractors, who have been successful in executing military operations around the world in the ongoing war on terrorism. This is proof of the training, equipment, and readiness that you have provided them. Their service and sacrifices, and the sacrifices of their families, are deeply appreciated. I ve talked with a number of families who have lost loved ones in Iraq and Afghanistan. families from Alabama. I ve visited our soldiers at Walter Reed, and I know, as you do, the real, personal sacrifice that is being made. Today s hearing is the first of two hearings we will have on Army programs. Our focus this afternoon will be transformation. On March 30, we ll have a hearing on Army aviation, specifically focusing on the termination of the Comanche armed reconnaissance helicopter program. It s something that I ve had an interest in and supported over the years, and I know Senator Lieberman has as well We will be talking about that and have a full opportunity to discuss it. The Airland Subcommittee has supported the Comanche program in previous budget requests, and we are concerned with the impact of the termination on the future...
