Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: . a Persian coin; 2 a necklace of oval beads, usually of gold, but called after Arabian coral; a chain with tiny casket containing an Arabian amulet. Among the heirlooms of the Perak sultanate is a very strange breast ornament 5 for adorning the front of a woman s dress; it is made up of six dragons: the two upper dragons approach each other with their heads and tails while their bodies curve outwards; between their heads is a fish; below them are two dragons stretching downwards parallel to one another; below these, two more dragons crossed. The whole ornament is made of a sort of mosaic of poor gems. It is not Malayan, and it has an Arabic name. The trail of Chinese and European influence, tiresome as mediocrity, is over all Malay ornament now that the feudal age with its patient unpaid craftsmen has...
