When I ran a network in television and radio stations, I had to depend totally on Nielsen data for my business. So, I hope Nielsen will cooperate with the MRC on this. If it does not, in my mind, that is another important reason that the bill should pass. Nielsen ratings determine the value of literally billions of dollars in advertising. And in a very real sense, the ratings generated by Nielsen determine content that is available in that shared space. So, the American public has a clear and compelling interest in ensuring that these ratings systems are as fair and accurate as possible. All viewers must be counted. I hope we can agree on that. And I believe that the FAIR Ratings bill is an important step in that direction. I have no one to hand the football off to, so we will start taking testimony this morning. We want to--or this afternoon-- we want to thank everyone in attendance....
